Prisoners To Receive Exile Funds

The 1.113 Bay of Pigs prisoners will be given refugee status when they return, Marshall Wise, head of the Cuban Refugee Center, said today.

Processing centers will be set up at the prisoners' point of arrival, wise stated.

Those who desire may register as refligees and receive an allotness equivalent to that given those who enter the country for the tirst and.

The amount, according to Wise, probably will not exceed $60 a month, plus a possible riothing allowance if it should be requested and needed.

"We're going to play this hing by ear," Wise said. He also stated that the money will ome from regular refugee unds set up by the government.

In reply to queries about whether special funds were on eposit for the returning prisoners at the Industrial National ank, officials there said they ad no knowledge of it
